

Re-Submitting Applications

Following a completed assessment, but before the council decision has been announced, an applicant may withdraw his/her application and immediately resubmit a partially revised version. Since this is a new application, the entire application must be checked to see whether it fulfils the accreditation conditions. In some cases, new experts may be called to assess the application.